

XICT Welcomed New Asia-Europe Express Service by Hanjin Shipping

On 14 January, XICT welcomed its first new service of 2009 – the Asia-Europe Express Service (AEX) operated by Hanjin Shipping – with the call of the Hanjin Vienna. Hanjin introduced AEX to Xiamen to meet the growing needs of its customers and increase its presence in Southeast China.

AEX is composed of eight Hanjin-operated vessels with capacities of 5,700 TEU. COSCO and UASC also share slots on the service. The ships run between Asia and Europe along the following route: Shanghai, Ningbo, Xiamen, Port Klang, Colombo, Hamburg, Rotterdam, Le Havre, Colombo, Port Klang, Hong Kong and Shanghai.
