

JMCT Organized a “Fire Prevention Day”

On 11 November, over 100 JMCT staff members, Jiangmen customs officers, and subcontractors took part in a Fire Prevention Day at the terminal. JMCT's goal was to spread knowledge of fire prevention in order to maintain the terminal's recent record of zero fire incidents. The event included a safety talk, a video screening and two fire drills.

A customs official fights a fire during a fire drill