

SICT – HPH Dock School Programme

On 10 March, SICT's management team delivered a batch of books to its Dock School, Shuangxin Primary School. The SICT team hopes that the children will use the books for extracurricular reading. Separately, SICT made another contribution to the extracurricular diversion of the children by helping to repave the school's basketball court.

Ronald Wan (third from right), General Manager of SICT, and Liu Kunlin (third from left), Principal of Shuangxin Primary School, with the students at the newly repaved basketball court